To Candidates.

From and after this date we will not announce candidates for county offices, or do work for them without payment in advance.

This step we deem advisable because it is much easier to pay these bills before than after an election, especially if those for whom work is done should be defeated.

Correspondents will not be allowed to give candidates favorable mention in their letters without paying the regular price, ten cents a line, for each line of such matter contained in their letters.

These rules will be strictly adhered to. There are now on our books considerable numbers of candidates for county offices, and a completion we desire to avoid in future.

The Knights of Pythias' Picnic.

Notwithstanding the weather had been very unpropitious for several days previous and was even quite threatening on Wednesday morning, still the Knights of Pythias' barbecue, on Wednesday, was largely attended by the Knights, accompanied by their families, relatives and friends; indeed in the afternoon the crowd swelled even beyond the most sanguine expectations of the managers. Everything had been well arranged by the committee, and the day passed off most agreeably to all present. A fine string band was on hand and music and dancing were the order of the day among the young and nimble footed. The older persons present were in the best of spirits, and the picnic was a very agreeable one in every respect.

The barbecue dinner was served about 2:30 o'clock, and it is not necessary to say was appetizingly enjoyed by those who gathered around the well-laid tables. The meat was well cooked, nicely seasoned and all present seemed to eat with a relish and appetite, and yet every one had an abundance.

The crowd lingered until late in the afternoon before dispersing. In all the affair was a great success and the K's of P. will doubtless make the occasion one of annual occurrence.

Much regret was expressed at the inability of the Hopkinsville and Paris lodges to be present.

PERSONAL.

Mr. William Dunn, a young man about twenty-eight years of age, died at the home of Mr. Brennan, on Fifth Cross street, on last Saturday evening at 6:30 o'clock, after a long and painful illness of nearly two years duration. He was a native of Ireland, but came to this country before reaching his majority. He came to this city some four or five years ago from Ohio, and was engaged up to the time of his protracted sickness in the employment of the Gas Company, by whom he was regarded as a competent and faithful employee. It was while in the service of this company that he received, while taking the stage of the gas meters one day, a severe fall into a cellar, sustaining a contusion of the spine, which was the primary cause of his sickness. He was modest and retiring in his disposition, but pleasant and affable to all with whom he came in contact, and was greatly liked by all who knew him, either in business or socially. He was an active member of the City Guards and made a conscientious and dutiful soldier, winning the sincere respect and esteem of his officers and comrades in arms, as an evidence of which the tribute published elsewhere in this issue bears fitting testimony. He was buried from the Catholic Church on Sunday afternoon, the Rev. Father Gleason officiating, his remains laid to rest in Greenwood Cemetery, with due martial honors, by the members of his company.
